

Wakefield FFA Alumni Scholarship 2014

This year, the Wakefield FFA Alumni is offering up to $2000 in scholarships to qualified seniors attending a two or four year college or university with the intent to continue education or training in agriculture and the natural resources OR students attending agriculturally related camps and seminars.

Answer the following questions and answer the essay. Attach both to an email and send to jriedel@wcpss.net by Friday, April 22nd, 2016 at 3 pm.

Name:

Address:

Date of Birth:

Grade Point Average (unweighted):

FFA Participation:

High School activities and awards:

College or University you plan to attend:

Proposed major for freshmen year:

Senior Scholarship Essay: In a one page, double spaced essay please answer the following question(s):

- How do you plan to continue the study of agriculture in the future?
- Will your college major or course of study involve agricultural courses? If so, what are some possible courses you would feel apply.

Summer Agriculture Experience Essay: In a one page, double spaced essay please answer the following question(s):

- What is the camp/experience that you plan to attend? Give us the “who, what, when, and where” about it.
- How will this experience enhance your high school knowledge, you as a person, and your 21st century skill set?